

Being registered on the Do Not Call List has been a Godsend. I know longer get annoying phone calls at the most in-opportune times. When you are in your sixties, there is very little that you need. If you do need something, you find it in the newspaper, circulars or magazines. I do not want to be called. I also wish the list extended to charities, police, firemen, etc. - they always call at dinner time!!!